

1 COMMITTEE: CSW

2 QUESTION OF: Human Trafficking

3 SUBMITTED BY: Egypt

6 THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

8 Alarmed that there are currently 50 million people who are victims of human trafficking 9 and that over 27.6 million of them are in forced labour,

11 Deeply concerned that 12% of those in forced labour are children and more than half 12 of them are involved in commercial and sexual exploitation and the devastating effects 13 which deprive them of an education,

15 Aware that 67% of people trafficked for sexual reasons are women,

17 Reminding all member states of the UN Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish 18 Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children,

20 Reaffirming the job of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC),

22 Encourage all member states to collaborate together in order to achieve the aims of 23 this resolution as a means of tackling the issue of human trafficking,

25 Aware of the detrimental psychological effect which human trafficking can have on all 26 victims,

- 29 1. Requests the creation of a sub-body in the UNODC called the Recovered
30 Education for Children (REFC) which is specifically aimed in reducing education 31 lost due to human trafficking involving children and asks for funding for the 32 following:
 - 33 a. Programs for missed education at different stages as children affected 34 will range in ages which will be monitored by the UN to ensure sufficient 35 education is being provided,
 - 36 b. Advertising through ways such as but not limited to social media to 37 attract more people to get involved in helping educating child victims of 38 human trafficking,
 - 39 c. Providing programs which specialise in teaching child victims of human 40 trafficking basic literacy skills which are beneficial for their futures;
- 42 2. Suggest increased levels of security at country borders and potential human 43 trafficking hotspots:

- 44 a. Implement more CCTV cameras in accordance with countries’
45 governments,
46 b. Increase the amount of physical security guards whose records have 47 been checked by the UNODC to avoid misbehaviour;
48
- 49 3. Ask for funding from the UN to increase awareness on the topic of human 50 trafficking by:
51 a. Implementing educational programs which inform adults and those not in 52 school on the dangers of human trafficking and how to spot it, 53 b. Increasing education in schools and provide this information online to 54 ensure the maximum amount of people are able to be informed on the 55 issue of human trafficking,
56 c. Use this increased education as a way to also protect any children from 57 experiencing human trafficking in the future, 58 d. Provide education to inform people on how to quickly respond to any 59 forms of child sexual trafficking to ensure that the minimum harm is done 60 and to also increase chances of catching individuals or organizations 61 responsible to reduce cases in the future;
62
- 63 4. Urges the UNODC to provide funds for support programs consisting of 64 volunteers hired by the UN for those affected to ensure they can receive any 65 help, such as therapy:
66 a. These support programs will be frequently monitored by the UNODC to 67 ensure they are constantly to a high standard and effective,
68 b. This support will also be available online as well to allow as many people 69 as possible to receive any necessary help;
70
- 71 5. Calls for more frequent inspections by the UNODC of three times a year or more 72 on organizations to ensure they are not responsible for or involved in human 73 trafficking and that these inspections are at random times to properly verify this;
74
- 75 6. Invites all members to attend a triannual conference, to monitor the progress of 76 clauses of this resolution on reducing human trafficking and to continue to 77 collaborate and ensure funding is consistent and to a sufficient amount to 78 ensure the maximum quality of help is being provided to those who are suffering 79 around the world as a result of human trafficking.
